

THE THREE TUNS

M E N U

With this menu we are striving to continue with the quality of our products and still continue to give you value for your money as well as keeping the level of food and service to one that you would expect.

All of our products are prepared and cooked to order, this might lead to a small waiting time during busy periods.

During your meal if you are not satisfied for any reason please inform one of the staff who will only be too glad to help as mistakes or problems cannot be rectified after the meal.
